MIDDLEBURG NEWS.

Mrs. Sim Maddox has returned home from Charleston after a few days visit to her sister, Mrs. Gass.

Mr. W. E. Duncan has returned to Columbia after a week's visit to his family and friends here.

Miss Tura Duncan of near Clyde's Chapel is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emmie Maddox of this town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rikard are at the bedside of the latter's mother, Mrs. J. W. Smith, of Leesville route 4, who is quite ill.

Mr. W. Bussie Miller spent Saturday and Sunday very pleasantly with friends in Leesville.

Miss Addie Miller spent a few days this week with her cousin, Mr. George Asbill and family, near Leesville.

Mr. J. B. Whittle and family have returned home after a week's visit in the Sardis section among friends.

Mrs. J. B. Whittle joined the church at Sardis during the protracted meeting last week and was baptized. She is now a member of both Methodist and Baptist.

Mr. Carl Corder and family spent Saturday night with his father-in-law, Rev. A. W. Lindler in the Delmar section.

Mr. Columbus Long and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with J. B. Whittle and family.

Rev. Earl Jefcoat is coming to hold a protracted meeting at Ebenezer this week and I trust God will be in the meeting and win.

Numbers of our people are leaving town since Middleburg Mill has closed down.

UP IN A BALLOON

A Russian up in a balloonsky.
Got stuck on the horns of the moonosky!
And to a Jap spy
He said: "How's this for high?"
Said the Jap: "You are a gone coonsky!"
